Shared Housing Rules

These House Rules form part of the Agreement and are binding on the Resident and, where applicable, any occupant or visitor permitted by the Resident. The Main Tenant may amend these House Rules and the Additional Charges from time to time where reasonably required for the management, operation, safety or security of the property, upon reasonable prior notice to the Resident.

1. GENERAL CONDUCT

The Resident shall behave in a lawful, respectful and considerate manner and shall not cause or permit any nuisance, disturbance, harassment, threatening, abusive, violent or disorderly conduct, or inconvenience to other occupants, neighbours, the Main Tenant, building management, security personnel or service providers. Noise from music, television, conversations, gatherings or other activities shall be kept to a reasonable level at all times. Parties, events or large gatherings shall not be held at the Premises without the Main Tenant's prior approval.

2. OCCUPANCY AND VISITORS

The Premises shall be occupied solely by the Resident unless otherwise approved by the Main Tenant in writing. The Resident shall not sublet, assign, transfer, share or permit any unauthorised person to occupy the Premises. Room Rentals shall be gender-segregated and mixed-gender occupancy shall not be permitted. For Unit Rentals, mixed-gender occupancy shall be permitted for families and married couples, subject to the Main Tenant's approval. For Room Rentals, visitors shall not be permitted inside residential units except during check-in, an emergency or other exceptional circumstance approved by the Main Tenant. Visitors shall comply with all applicable security and building requirements, including registration and designated parking requirements, and shall otherwise remain within designated communal areas. Overnight guests are strictly prohibited in Room Rentals. For Unit Rentals, visitors are permitted subject to applicable building, security and Main Tenant rules. The Resident shall in all cases be responsible for the conduct of his/her visitors and for any loss, damage or breach caused by them.

3. CLEANLINESS AND USE OF PREMISES

The Resident shall keep the Premises, including all shared areas used by the Resident, reasonably clean, sanitary and orderly. Kitchens, bathrooms and other shared facilities shall be kept clean after use. Food waste, rubbish and other refuse shall be properly disposed of in designated areas and shall not be disposed of through sinks, toilets or drains. The Resident shall bear the reasonable cost of clearing or repairing any blockage caused by the Resident or his/her visitor. Where a blockage occurs within a shared area and the responsible Resident cannot reasonably be identified, the reasonable cost may be apportioned equally among the occupants of the relevant unit. No personal belongings or other items shall be placed so as to obstruct entrances, corridors, fire exits or shared areas. Any communal-area cleaning provided by the Main Tenant does not relieve the Resident of the obligation to maintain reasonable cleanliness. Cooking shall only be permitted in designated kitchen areas.

4. PROHIBITED ACTIVITIES AND ITEMS

Room Rentals are designated as halal and non-smoking accommodation. Pork, lard, alcohol, illegal drugs, weapons, explosives, fireworks and other unlawful or dangerous items shall not be brought into, consumed, used or kept within Room Rental accommodation. Smoking and vaping are prohibited within the Premises. The Resident shall not keep or use open flames, flammable or hazardous materials, or any item which creates an unreasonable fire or safety risk; tamper with or misuse any fire protection, electrical, internet, utility or security system; or engage in any activity which may damage the property or endanger any person. Pets or animals shall not be kept at the Premises without the Main Tenant's prior written approval.

5. SAFETY AND SECURITY

The Resident shall take reasonable precautions to secure the Premises and shall keep entrances, corridors, fire exits and emergency escape routes free from obstruction. Keys, access cards, stickers and other access credentials shall not be duplicated, transferred or provided to any unauthorised person, and any loss or damage shall be promptly reported to the Main Tenant. The Resident shall comply with all applicable building security, fire safety and emergency procedures. The Resident remains responsible for the safekeeping of his/her personal belongings.

6. DAMAGE, ALTERATIONS AND MAINTENANCE

The Resident shall exercise reasonable care in the use of the Premises and all furniture, fixtures, fittings, appliances and equipment provided therein, and shall not remove, relocate, replace, alter, paint, drill, install or otherwise modify the same or any part of the Premises without the Main Tenant's prior written approval. The Resident shall promptly report any damage, defect, maintenance issue or safety concern and shall not undertake repairs without approval. The Resident shall be liable for the reasonable cost of repairing or replacing any damage or loss caused by the Resident or his/her visitors, excluding fair wear and tear. Where damage or loss occurs within a shared area and the responsible person cannot reasonably be identified, the reasonable cost may be apportioned equally among the occupants of the relevant unit.

7. COMMON FACILITIES

All common facilities and amenities shall be used responsibly and in accordance with any rules issued by the building management or Main Tenant. The Main Tenant reserves the right to suspend or restrict access to facilities for maintenance, safety, operational, or management purposes. The Resident shall also comply with all rules, by-laws, and directions imposed by the building management or relevant authorities.

8. UTILITIES AND AIR-CONDITIONING

The Resident shall use water, electricity, air-conditioning and other utilities reasonably and shall not tamper with any meter, electrical installation, plumbing system or utility equipment. For shared Room Rentals, utilities shall be apportioned in accordance with the Main Tenant's applicable utility-sharing calculation, including by reference to occupied days where applicable. Any adjustment for an extended period of absence shall be subject to the Main Tenant's prior approval. Utility charges for the preceding billing period shall be payable by the 14th day of each month. Any late-payment or reconnection charge imposed by the relevant service provider due to the Resident's non-payment shall be borne by the Resident. Air-conditioning servicing is mandatory and shall be carried out once every twelve (12) months or once during the Term where the term is less than twelve (12) months, unless otherwise exempted in writing by the Main Tenant. The servicing charge of RM120.00 shall be borne by the Resident.

9. CHECK OUT AND CLEANING

Upon expiry or termination, the Resident shall comply with the Main Tenant's check-out procedure, return all keys, access cards and other property issued to the Resident, and leave the Premises in a reasonably clean and tenantable condition, subject to fair wear and tear. A mandatory RM60 basic move-out cleaning charge shall apply. Any additional deep cleaning, restoration, rubbish removal, disposal, repair or reinstatement reasonably required having regard to the condition of the Premises shall be charged separately. The Resident shall review and sign the applicable Checkout Statement upon completion of the check-out process.

10. ENFORCEMENT

Where the Resident breaches these House Rules, the Main Tenant may issue a warning and require the breach to be remedied within a reasonable period. Repeated, serious or continuing breaches may result in further action in accordance with the Agreement, including recovery of reasonable losses or costs, deduction from deposits where permitted, restriction of facilities, relocation or termination. Where conduct presents an immediate threat to persons or property, involves suspected unlawful activity or gives rise to a serious safety concern, the Main Tenant may refer the matter to building security or the relevant authorities.

11. ADDITIONAL CHARGES

The following charges shall apply where the relevant service, request, loss or event occurs.
